Choose your way to CELEBRATE!

You and your family and friends can celebrate National Indigenous Peoples Day with either traditional or contemporary activities. When planning your activities, we strongly suggest you get some advice from a person who is knowledgeable about Indigenous traditions.

Here are some ideas:

- Indigenous guest speakers, e.g. an Elder
- Partner with an on-reserve school or local Indigenous organization
- Arts and crafts display or workshop
- Learn a few words in an Indigenous language
- Traditional or contemporary games, e.g. lacrosse
- Displays of treaties, arts and books
- Storytelling
- Dancers and singers
- An essay writing and art work contest
- Give a quiz on Indigenous history/culture
- School Internet exchange
- Field trips to significant local Indigenous sites
- Student exchanges
- Write to students in an Indigenous school
- Research on the contributions made by Indigenous people to Canada
- Identify or learn about Indigenous heroes/heroines in Canada
- Indigenous food preparation
- Visit Indigenous websites, including
  - www.abo-peoples.org
  - www.afn.ca
  - www.itk.ca
  - www.metisnation.ca
  - www.nafc.ca
  - www.nwac.ca
